City Provides Map, Legal Description For Areas Interested In Annexation

Approached by The Upland News as to the procedure to be followed by property owners of any areas outside the city wishing to annex, Upland City Manager Elwin Alder said the first step is for a group of such property owners to indicate an interest in annexation to the city manager's office.

With such an indication, the city manager could authorize the City Engineering department to prepare a legal description and map would then be made available to the interested partles for use in the preparation and circulation of a petition to property owners in such area as would be proposed for annexation.

Mr. Alder indicated that the city hall officials are always glad to cooperate with property owners of adjacent areas interested in annexing to the City of Upland. He emphasized that the city is not actively promoting annexation of any areas to the city, but if property owners of adjacent areas desire annexation, the city is ready to cooperate in complying with legal requirements for such annexations.

The city manager also stated that where property owners of an area are interested in annexation, they should start annexation proceedings for as large an area as possible. Mr. Alder explained that it is much easier to "shrink" the area to be annexed than to expand such area after the legal description and map have once been prepared.

Mr. Alder's comments on annexation proceedings were solicited after The News learned that some property owners in the southwestern Cucamonga area, immediately east of Upland's Grove Ave. eastern boundary, were interested in learning annexation proceedings.

Homeowners Unite

Protecting the interests of property owners in Baldy View Estates is the purpose of Baldy View Improvement Assn., now being organized by the 67 families in the two-year-old Upland residential area.

This is the purpose of the proposed organization as outlined by Robert L. Sinclair, 592 Maple Way, acting chairman, and Don F. Lewis, 558 Maple Way, acting secretary, at the first mass meeting of the Baldy View residents Monday night in Baldy View School.

Future zone changes in areas contiguous to the residential tract, other Planning Commission and City Council action, and other matters of common interest to the neighborhood, including improved Postal service, improved police protection, and continuation of Juniper Ave. north to 11th St., were listed as projects to gain the attention of the property owners group. It is especially dedicated to fighting encroachment of commercial development in the area.

"Our purpose is not to wave our arms and try to frighten these people (Planning Commission and City Council), but to let them know we are organized and a group," Mr. Sinclair stated as the organization's purposes were outlined. He referred to recent rezoning actions of the city government, which have permitted a trailer park and a rest home on W. Arrow Hwy., as typical of projects to receive the group's combined effort of protest in the future.

Mr. Sinclair cited the need of such a group to be represented at each meeting of the city governmental bodies by informed, organized speakers. "One of the crying needs for addrssing a city council or planning commission meeting is a prepared form of speech," the acting chairman stated. He referred to developers and their "organized approach" in speaking for requested rezonings and other matters, citing the amount of money they have involved as the incentive for such an organized presentation. He also cited the lack of an organized presentation too often made by opponents of a rezoning or similar petition before the city agencies.

Mayor Abner B. Haldeman was a guest at the organization meeting of the Baldy View property owners and opened his remarks by calling for an "interested citizenry" throughout the community to aid the city government as Upland enters its major era of growth.

Mayor Haldeman complimented the home owners' group with, "I think you're on the right track." Asking for questions, the mayor spent 30 minutes providing answers. He stressed that taxpayers of the city should never feel it is an imposition to present problems directly to members of the city council or planning commission, or to the various city governmental departments.

On presentations before the City Council or Planning Commission, as proponents or opponents of a petition, Mayor Haldeman urged preparedness in presenting a total picture. He referred to the city's General Planning Map, once called the Master Plan, as a "guide line" subject to changing conditions. He cited the Capital Outlay Citizens' Committees for their invaluable work in plotting Upland's future development for a 20 to 25 year period.

A Baldy View property owner, remarking on the future planning realized by the city, recalled that since the development of Baldy View Estates, changes in thinking concerning adjacent property at the corner of Mountain Ave. and Arrow Hwy. have occurred, and raised the question of future development of vacant property (now zoned R-1) surrounding the residential tract.

"If your area wants to remain as is, what you're going to do (as an organization) will realize this," Mayor Haldeman advised. The mayor cited the city's tax base as an underlying economic factor always considered by each planner and councilman of the city as development proposals come before them for action.

He outlined other considerations entering into most rezoning decisions, including the density of population, fire protection and schools, concluding, "There is much more than an emotional approach to the question."

The mayor urged substantial research to back up any presentations to be made before the city boards by the Baldy View group or individual property owners. He cited the value to the Council and Planning Commission of having complete adverse pictures presented by opponents, as well as the proponents' arguments. He said studies of projects in other communities, and their affect on surrounding property, make valuable presentations when similar projects are proposed for Upland.

Mayor Haldeman left the meeting after declaring, "I wish there were more citizen organizations such as yours. It might keep the Council in hot water BUT nothing BUT good can come out of your clear, concise, constructive thinking."

Volunteers for the Steering Committee to prepare by-laws and a slate of nominees was the next business of the meeting. Other than the two acting officers, the committee includes Reuben Stricker, 1025 W. Arrow Hwy.; Andrew Barmakian, 592 Aspen Way; Frank McCarty, 625 Birch Ave.; Bob Swihart, William O. Thomas, 1002 Winn Dr.; Lee Kilpatrick, 627 Aspen Way, and L. K. Davis, 633 Aspen Way.

Mr. Lewis reported on a Pomona neighborhood which organized as an improvement and protective association two years ago. He submitted that group's by-laws for the Steering Committee to use as a basis for its preparations.

$60,000 Arcade Development Plan For Second Ave.

As Upland's downtown parking lots become a reality, and modernization of Upland Shopping Center gains support and public interest, a shopping arcade which would provide direct access between the First Ave. parking lot (between Ninth and C Sts.) and Second Ave. is proposed by Pacific Home, Inc. This announcement is the first concerning definite plans for rear entrance modernization.

The arcade would be lined with shops and offices. This $60,000 proposed development is for 271 and 275 N. Second Ave., the business space formerly occupied by Upland Home Appliance Co. and a gift shop. The appliance store is now located in the building with Mac's Furniture and at a Cucamonga location.

Leslie H. Boyd, manager of the properties for Pacific Home, Inc., of Los Angeles, reports the rear of the buildings would also be completely modernized under the plan as well as the upstairs apartments, which would have a roof sun deck added. The area at the back of the business space is also scheduled for beautification as an entrance mall.

Mr. Boyd, who incorporated Upland Shopping Center about two years ago, during his term as Upland Chamber of Commerce president, said Pacific Home, Inc., is "encouraged by the spirit the City of Upland has shown and the spirit of unity and cooperation evidenced by the merchants in facing their problems of parking and modernization." He said the corporation has confidence in downtown Upland as a natural shopping center. "It is not a fringe area," Mr. Boyd emphasized in outlining the importance of the downtown district. "This is truly the shopping center for Upland, Alta Loma, Cucamonga and northern Ontario."

Upland Missionary Home From Cuban Danger Zone

Miss Helen Longanecker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Longanecker, 245 N. Third Ave., is now at home with her parents, following her departure from Cuba, during the internal strife in that area.

Miss Longanecker, a missionary with practical training in missionary work has been stationed in Majagua, province of Camaguey, Cuba, for the past six and a half years, under the sponsorship of an interdenominational missionary training program.

During the summer months, a heavy schedule of practical training is maintained, with young people from the United States wishing to enter the field, going to Cuba for training. Normal missionary work is carried on during the winter time.

The Upland resident stated that all during the night of Dec. 27, she witnessed machine gun bombardments and also bombing attacks by air directed against a town about 10 miles away. By Dec. 29, things became sufficiently dangerous, that Miss Longanecker, in company with two other adults and two children left the community where she was stationed, and went to the capital city of the province, which is also named Camaguey. They boarded a plane there on the 31st and flew to Miami, Fla., with Miss Longanecker arriving in Los Angeles Jan. 2.

She plans to remain in this area until such time as conditions are quieted in Cuba, and then hopes to return to her work in that area.

Annual meeting of the membership of First Presbyterian Church will be held at 7:30 this evening in the sanctuary.

Barber Shop Leads In Rear Entry Program

First rear-entrance remodeling program in Upland Shopping Center is due to begin today, with the announcement late Wednesday that O. K. Barber Shop, 232 N. Second Ave., will be enlarged with an addition on the rear and an entry from the rear parking area.

Premo Valle and Noval Beck, proprietors, are financing the expansion and remodeling with Herman Rempel, Upland contractor, to extend the building 24 feet to provide rear entry hallway, rest room, utility room and additional barber shop space. Addition of a fourth chair in the shop is being considered.

Pierre Woodman, Upland architect, prepared the plans opy to enhance the rear enfor the expansion, with a cantry.

Plans for the project were being checked by Upland Building Department yesterday before the project could be started.

Equipment Arrives But Post Office Still In Planning Stages Lacking City Approval

Equipment and furnishings for Upland's new Post Office have arrived and are awaiting construction of the new building—still in the planning stages with final approval of building plans and a record of survey yet to be cleared at City Hall.

Plans for the new Post Office building, to be constructed at the southwest corner of "C" St. and Fifth Ave., have been returned to the Postal Department planners by City Building Inspector Richard Derby, for corrections before being resubmitted with a building permit application.

Earl Schaffer of the Building department reports that the plans should be returned soon, possibly this week, to that department for final approval.

Reports late Wednesday were to the effect that an informal groundbreaking ceremony would be held in the immediate future, possibly on Monday. Postmaster Roy A. Ray indicated he would prefer the groundbreaking be held up until the record of survey for the new Post Office is given final City Council approval Tuesday night.

City Engineer Harold Wilder reports that a final record of survey is yet to be submitted for City Council approval before a building permit can be issued by the Building Inspector's department.

Mr. Wilder said only a tentative record of survey was previously approved by the Council and the final approval must be given before the project has full clearance. This could be presented to the Council at the Jan. 20 meeting.

Postmaster Roy A. Ray said construction on the new Post Office building will be started as soon as the plans have cleared city hall.

Now being stored at the old Post Office building on E. Ninth St. is a shipment of equipment for the new building, including sorting equipment, desks, lock boxes and lobby desks. The safe for the new Post Office has arrived in San Bernardino.

The proposed new Post Office will provide a box lobby, with direct access from the entrance on "C" St.; a service lobby with service counters similar to new-type bank service counters (no bars or petitions, but open counters), a private office for the postmaster, and the mail work room—open to the service lobby and containing separated areas for the assistant postmaster's and finance offices.

A door between the box lobby and service lobby will be locked during the hours the service counters are not open. This door is provided as the service counters are not equipped with petitioning to separate the service lobby and work mail room, as in the old-style post offices.

Dentist Tells PTA Of Need For City Water Fluoridation

Tooth decay can be prevented.

The most practical, positive, and best way is by fluoridating city water supply.

This is what Dr. Lyle W. Callow, Upland dentist, told Sierra Vista PTA members Thursday night.

The Upland dentist showed "shocking" slides of Upland children whose mouths were in such bad shape they would remain as "dental cripples" for life.

"There is six times more dental work today than dentists can handle," he said, calling conditions a "distressing situation."

"It is possible to prevent dental decay," Dr. Callow said. The cause is from the high sugar, high flour, and high acid intake in the diet.

"Heredity is not the true cause of decay," he noted.

The speaker stated "The best method of preventing decay is proper diet, but this is hard to do in our society."

Instead of pop, pies, cakes, candy, ice cream, a diet should consist of fresh fruits, juices, and natural foods, a rough diet.

He decried the tendency of some doctors to give suckers and candy to small folks. "Give them toys instead! By your action you are sanctioning the means to dental decay."

Dr. Callow called for fluoridation of water supply. He said it was a proven, scientific, fully successful "fact" that adding one part per million results in remarkably lowering of dental decay of 65% in new teeth.

It is not a medicine, causes no ill effects to any age, and costs only about 10 cents per person each year, he said. Saving one filling would pay for 80 years of fluoridated water for one person, he added.

Fluoridation has been worked on since 1934, and controlled 10-year testing in Newburg, and Kingston, N. Y., have proven beyond a shadow of a doubt, the value of it, he told his PTA audience.

He cited N. Y. figures which showed a reduction of 75% of cavities in children six years old, 68% in children seven, and 51% in children 10.

American Medical Association, American Dental Association, U. S. Public Health Service, and many others have supported fluoridation of water, he reported.

"Two years ago 20 million persons in the U. S. were drinking fluoridated water; today 34 million are," he said. He predicted more and more communities would realize the advantages of fluoridated water.

Dr. Callow said San Dimas had a natural supply of one part per million and LaVerne, Ontario, and Upland had roughly .2 per million. There is 50% less decay in San Dimas children than in Upland children, he said.

"Fluoridation is no panacea for all dental ills," he remarked, "for we will still need good dental habits and to eat well."

As to "topical application" of fluoride to teeth, he said this would prevent up to 40% of decay, but it was exceptionally costly, hard to do properly, and the vast majority of children needing treatment would never get it.

Fluoridation was compared to the great advances made in conquering smallpox through vaccination, polio through serum; and in making water safe through use of chlorine.

Supporting Dr. Callow without question were a physician, and a dentist, present at the meeting.

Raising questions and pointing out objections to fluoridation after the talk was David Price, a science teacher at Bonita High School at San Dimas and LaVerne.

He was brought to the meeting by Mrs. Charles Martini of Upland, his sister-in-law, to "make the meeting more interesting."

Among the points raised in the discussion with Mr. Price were that fluoridation denied persons of personal freedom, their right to refuse, that "artificial sodium fluoride" was not "thrown off by the body" as natural calicium fluoride was and so was accumulated, and that too much was a poison, and that leading doctors and dentists opposed fluoridation."

Dr. Callow said he has presented considerable material to the Upland City Council over the past 10 years. He said there was no movement at present to fluoridate water in Upland.

A cross-section survey of some 2000 pupils in Ontario schools will be made soon regarding dental conditions.

Cook Calls For Bold Action To Cope With Higher Enrollments

Four more temporary classrooms were authorized by the Upland Elementary School Board to handle the pupil growth in the District.

Superintendent Harold W. Cook told board members Tuesday night that 31 additional pupils had enrolled since Jan. 1.

"We have about 10% of our pupils on shortened (double) sessions now,' Mr. Cook said, and we need boldness and imagination or we will have 25 to 30% next year."

The Board attacked the problem of fast growth in a number of ways, and heard reports relating to the growth problem as follows:

1. Authorized a transfer of $21,000 from an undivided reserve fund to a building fund to purchase outright three previously passed temporary classrooms. This will cut the "reserve margin" of the district from 15 to 12%.

2. Agreed that state aid should be sought, based on a square-foot formula. Ontario has had state aid for several years, and Upland has not had any as it is a richer distrcit.

3. Heard a report that $100,000 in school bonds are expected to be sold Monday. Current high interest rates are from 5 to 4%, because of the inflationary threat. The district has sold bonds as fast as the law allows, and in greater numbers compared to other districts.

4. Heard a report that two new buses might be needed next Fall because of the rapid growth in the northeast section of the city.

5. Hired a former teacher Shirley Miller Parks, for the 4th grade for the 1959-60 year in an attempt to keep up with other districts who were hiring already.

6. Accepted the only bid of $14,255.28 from American Seating Co., for the complete furnishings of 12 new classrooms.

Mr. Cook said "We need every method of financing to get space" to handle the increase in pupils.

The Board was concerned particularly with the unexpected rapid growth of the Medco Corp., which is going ahead with a vast housing program in Upland.

Jarvis J. Leman, President of the Board, said the assessed valuation of the new homes would not cover the cost of education of the children.

The four ways to finance the school system are from the regular budget, bonding, lease-purchase, and state aid.

Mr. Cook called the new growth "frighteningly fast development."

44 New Homes Total $612,900 In Valuation

Already in the new year, 44 permits for new homes with a total valuation of $612,900 have been issued by the office of City Building Inspector Richard Derby.

Of this total, 39 permits were issued this week to Medco Corp. for construction of 39 new homes with a total valuation of $537,400. The new homes, 37 of them to cost $13,800 and two to cost $13,400, are being constructed on N. Grove Ave. in Foothill Knolls.

Clinton C. Doubles, Upland builder of 1196 Quince Ave., received permits for two $16,500 homes at 1232 and 1250 Vallejo Way. Other home permits have been issued to Frank Diaz of LaVerne, residence at 279 N. 11th Ave., $16,500; Catalino Rombawa of 1494 Salinas St., residence at 915 N. Grove Ave., $8,000;

Vaughn Brown of 768 Eighth Ave., home at 1218 Vallejo Way, $18,000. A private swimming pool permit has been issued Alfred Signorio, 1685 N. Laurel Ave., $2700.

Mrs. Goins Recovering

Woman Charged With Felony Assault After Altercation

On Feb. 5, 9 a.m., Mrs. Velma Buffington, 30 N. 10th Ave., will appear in Upland Justice Court for preliminary examination by Judge Fred H. Jacobs before trial is set on a felony charge of "assault with a caustic chemical."

Mrs. Buffington appeared this week before Judge Jacobs with her attorney, Harold Bailin, to waive formal arraignment on the felony charge.

The Upland resident was arrested Jan. 7 and jailed on the charge after an incident at Upland Lemon Growers Assn. packing house, 392 E. "A" St., in which Mrs. Fannie Goins, 1162 N. Third Ave., received second degree burns of the face, neck and left eye from a caustic chemical solution.

Free On $2,000 Bail

Mrs. Buffington was released on $2,000 bail on Jan. 8 and is at liberty pending the Feb. 5 preliminary examination.

According to the report of Upland Police Department, prepared by Sgt. Waldo Owen, Mrs. Goins was placing her time card in a rack at the lemon packing house about 4 p.m. Wednesday, Jan. 7, when she was accosted by Mrs. Buffington, a fellow worker, who struck her. Asked why, the defendent is reported to have replied that she was tired of being followed by Mrs. Goins and wanted it stopped.

Mrs. Goins told the investigating officer that Mrs. Buffington then turned to walk away but turned again and hurled liquid in her face. A scuffle then ensued until Mrs. Goins could no longer see, according to her statement.

No Previous Trouble

The victim said she had no idea why she was attacked, having had no previous trouble with Mrs. Buffington. The latter told police that Mrs. Goins had been following her and that she had "looked at me out of eyes like a crazed animal." She also said she had never had previous trouble with Mrs. Goins as she had tried to avoid the latter for four years.

Treated by a local doctor and an eye specialist, Mrs. Goins was found to have second degree burns of the face, neck, and lower half of the left eye. On Thursday, she was hospitalized at San Antonio Community Hospital and returned to her home yesterday.

No Sight Impairment

Her eye is expected to fully recover with no sight impairment. She reports her eye is still badly swollen with the face and neck burns beginning to heal. No facial scars are anticipated.

Doctors treating the victim suspected the injurious liquid of being a lye water solution and a sample remaining in the jar sent for analysis was found to be "primarily a lye base." Sgt. Owen said Mrs. Buffington admitted mixing the solution at home and taking it to work in a pint jar for protection against Mrs. Goins. Investigation revealed the liquid had left burn marks on a wooden bench at the scene of the altercation.

Zone Change Hearings Due

Three public hearings on zone change petitions will be on the agenda for 8 p.m. when Upland City Council meets Tuesday, Jan. 20, 7:30 p.m., in Upland City Hall.

Two hearings will concern the requested rezoning of property on the south side of W. Ninth St., from R-3 to C-P.

Third public hearing will be on the petition of Paul L. Bleiler for a change in zone from R-3 to C-1 zoning for a parcel on Campus Ave., lying between Sycamore Ct. and Richland St., immediately north of the freeway in southeast Upland.

Upland Planning Commission has recommended the three rezonings and no protests were heard before the Commission.

No Brighter Lights For RR Crossing

A Santa Fe railroad spokesman has informed the City of Upland that the signal lights at the crossing on Euclid Ave. cannot be improved.

That is the word received in answer to a query by City Manager Elwin Alder after Councilman John H. Nicholson brought the dim lights of the crossing signals to his attention.

In a letter to Mr. Alder, Santa Fe's signal supervisor, L. C. Woods, stated: "Due to the construction of this type of wigwag, banner and light, we can not improve the brilliancy of the light."

Councilman Nicholson said the brilliancy of the railroad signal lights at the Santa Fe crossing of Euclid Ave. as compared to the brilliant lights of crossings in Ontario are somewhat equivalent to the red tail lights of a Model-T Ford compared to the 1959 model tail lights.

Make yours a "saving-is-fun" home
A child who grows up in a "saving-is-fun" home has much more chance of amounting to something than one who grows up in a "spend-everything" home.
Children like to collect things. Teach them to "collect" money.
Pay them for small chores. Encourage them to put their savings first in a "piggie bank" of some sort. Then open an account and get a pass book for each child at Euclid Savings & Loan at Ontario. Show them how the interest (now 4% per year) adds to their saving. You can start with as little as $5 for each child.
Accounts Insured to $10,000 by an agency of the Federal Government.

Good Drivers Can Be Better

Red Cross Offers Course For Licensed Drivers

Driver Safety Education classes are a new program of Upland Chapter, American Red Cross, in response to a request from Upland Safety Council.

Mrs. Eleanor W. Taylor, Chapter executive secretary, announces the first Driver Safety Education class will be offered Tuesday, Jan. 20, beginning at 7:30 p.m. and continuing for two hours.

The course will be continued on Jan. 22 and Jan. 28, again from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m., and all sessions will take place at the Red Cross Chapter House, 409 N. First Ave.

Delbert Gibson, superintendent of transportation for Chaffey Union High School District, and Sgt. Tom Davis of Upland Police Department will be the class instructors.

Mrs. Taylor emphasizes that the three classes are open to the public and attendance is urged. The program is not for learner drivers but for licensed drivers who would liked to improve their driving and their highway safety.

"When good drivers become better drivers, everyone benefits," is the program theme. The course was developed by the National Red Cross and American Automobile Assn.

Topics to be covered include car insurance, safe driving in rough weather, how to pull a car out of a skid, safe driving in twilight and night hours, getting out of tight spots, facing emergencies with a cool head, how high speed makes car care cost more, how to make on-the-spot road repairs and knowing what the mechanic is talking about.

Registration is being taken at the Red Cross Chapter House with no charge made for the course.

Seek Meeting On Drainage Channel

Upland City Manager Elwin Alder and City Clerk Hazel Cassell have both directed letters to San Bernardino County Flood Control District in an effort to obtain a meeting at which the Bodenhamer St. flood control channel in southeast Upland would be discussed, clarified and preferably changed so as not to work a hardship on adjacent industries.

Acquisition of a 40 foot strip of land on the east side of the channel, south of Ninth St. to the Santa Fe right of way, has been started by the county agency, McCully Woodworking Shop and Upland Concrete Products Co. told the City Council on Jan. 6 that this would take one-third the width of their properties and greatly jeopardize the businesses and hamper plans for expansion.

Jack Isom, property owner on the west side of the channel, said the present channel could be lined with concrete and be more effective than the proposed wider channel as well as more economical and permanent in nature.

After hearing a lengthy discussion of the matter, the Council called for a meeting of the County Flood Control District and Zone 1 Advisory Committee with the Upland Council members, property owners affected by the channel project and Supervisor Richard G. Manley.

WCTU To Hold Co. Institute

WCTU will hold a County Institute meeting in Upland Church of the Nazarene at 10 a.m., Jan. 16, with Mrs. Ralph Marr, County director, presiding.

The Rev. Richard E. Pitts, pastor of First Methodist Church will bring the devotional message.

American Field Service Program

15 UHS Students Candidates For Summer In Europe

Fifteen Upland High School students are hopefully awaiting a series of tests and interviews which will open the door to a summer in Europe for one of them.

Applications have been received by the American Field Service Summer Program for the following students: Lerace Boshart, Jaimie Clark, Nancy DeLaurier, Ann Engle, Suzanne Frost, Reed Hansen, Virginia Harris, Barbara Hawkins, Jean Anne Kilmurray, Sharon Larson, Sharon Pomeroy, Karen Shacklett, Diana Sheppard, Lynne Stark and Ellen Turner.

Essay, Interview

Each of these must write an essay supervised by a committee composed of Larry Brewer and Mrs. Walton Wolfe. Each must appear before a committee for a personal interview. Mrs. Ruby Wignall, UHS counselor and Mrs. Fern Reisner are two members of the committee. Each must file a financial statement and a certificate of health.

William Hildebrand, chairman of the Upland Summer Program, announced today that final decision will be made by the committees by Jan. 25. At that time, one student will be named as a top choice. Three other students will be named alternates. "It depends on the amount of money we can raise and the acommodations for students abroad how many others we will be able to send," Mr. Hildebrand said. He stated that the committees hope to send at least two other students, but the final decision will rest with the New York office of the American Field Service.

Community Project

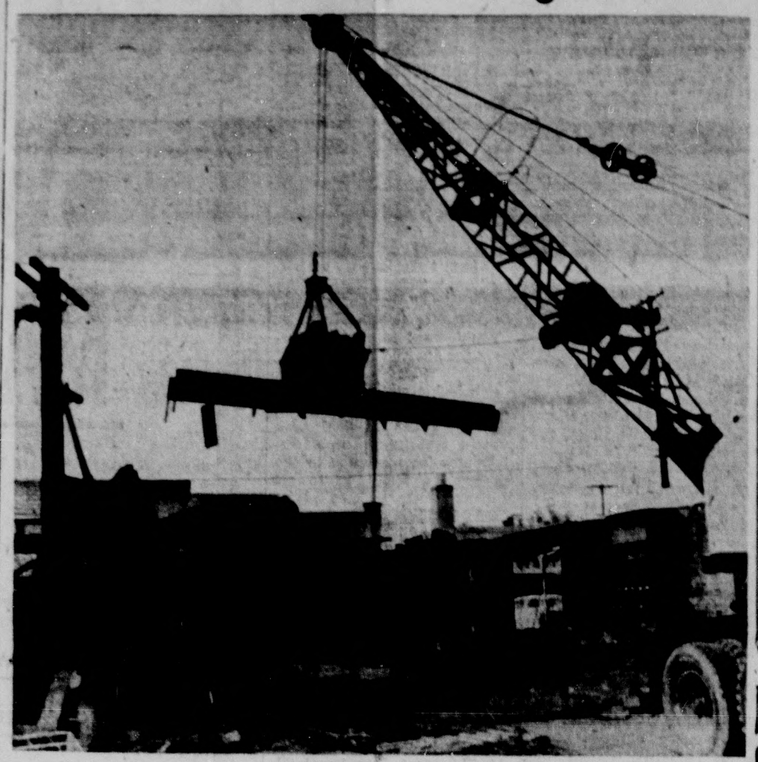

Parents, faculty members, students, and service clubs interested in Upland High School are joining in an effort to finance the venture. At a recent meeting of th Program, supervised by Mr. Hildebrand, the following committees were formed: Finance - Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Turner; fund raising, Miss Margaret Steinbrugge and Samuel Mesa; publicity, the Mmes. Edward K. Hansen, Howard Kilmurray, M. K. Smith, G. Boshart, and Max Hawkins.

Hildebrand informed the members that the financial drive was most important at this time and urged all Upland Community members to contact one of the committee members to make a donation towards sending a Upland High School student to Europe for the summer.

Tank Works Falls To Progress

Razing of the former buildings and yard of Buehler Tank and Welding Works on the east side of Archibald Ave., one block north of Foothill Blvd. in Cucamonga, wil make way for future commercial development in the prospering business district. A crane was used this week as the final clearance was begun. The Buehler firm is now located in Orange, having ben relocated some time ago by W. A. Buehler, who founded the business as a blacksmith and welding shop in 1918 and guided its growth to a $1 million business in which his sons are now associated. No development plans have been announced for the Cucamonga property but a major grocery chain expresed interest in it several months ago.

Looking Ahead In '59

Resolved, that in the year 1959, these things shall be accomplished:

1. That new industry be brought and welcomed to Upland.
2. That EACH yard and home be improved and fixed up in some way.
3. That we become more friendly with our neighbors.
4. That we make Upland more of a separate community than it is, to retain and extend its spirit and character.
5. That we support our schools, churches and government in projects that will give us a better community in which to work and live.
6. That we tackle big problems like smog, annexation, rezoning, parking, and solve and care for them so good will result from ACTION.
7. That we be honest, just, and fair with ourselves and others.

EDITORIAL

What Will You Do?

There are many clubs, lodges, and organizations in Upland.

We believe folks should support these institutions, for they can contribute much to a community.

Exactly how much they contribute always is a good question.

How to keep membership up and interested is a problem in every organization and always another question.

Part of the answer to these questions involves this: THE GOOD THAT IS ACCOMPLISHED FOR THE COMMUNITY.

So today we would like to pose this question of all organizations in Upland . . . exactly what will you do in 1959 that will make Upland a better place in which to work and live?

To gain public support and esteem, to fulfill a responsibility to society — we strongly believe that every group should have at least one major project that will boost its community.

What will you do for Upland in 1959?

EDITORIAL

Seek Guardians Of Future

The mayor of Upland is seeking two well-qualified persons to fill posts on the Planning Commission. His concern for a high quality type of commission is admirable.

We always have held that a Planning Commission is a "strong right arm" for a City Council and a community, and one of the most important bodies we have.

Our future soon turns into our todays.

For Water Fluoridation

An Upland dentist told a PTA audience last week that city water should be fluoridated.

He said it was the most practical and best method today to combat dental decay.

For years we have watched the subject of fluoridation of water as it has become more and more common.

We agree with the dentist. Upland should fluoridate its water, and as soon as possible.

It is difficult to laugh off the recommendations of the American Medical Assn., the American Dental Assn. and the United States Public Health Service (to name only three), august bodies which have supported fluoridation.

It also is difficult to explain away or argue with FACTS as proven across the country in city after city.

When dentists and doctors and health officials can come up with an idea of stopping 65% of all dental cavaties in children, and without ill effects to anyone, we think it is worth examining and adopting.

San Dimas, with natural treatment of its water, has 50% less cavaties in its children compared to Upland children.

At present there is no movement under way to aid our children. There should be.

Safeguarding Community

We were happy to note the fire department is watching and checking upon our schools to safeguard youngsters from a fire tragedy.

They are most concerned about the Junior High School because of its higher floors. But by training, fire drills, and good housekeeping, they believe this school is as safe as possible.

They have not checked, as yet, the churches, clubs, lodges, and such places of public assembly.

In the interest of public safety, we agree with them that this should be done, and buildings given a clear bill of health or fixed up.

Offer Income Tax Class

A timely class in "Income Tax" is offered by Chaffey College Adult Education, having begun Monday and to continue for six weeks. William Grigsby, in charge of Adult Education, reports that it will be given Monday evenings from 7-9 p.m. in room 54 of the college building. Registration may be made in the class Monday night.

C. Lewis Trine, Certified Public Accountant of the firm of Vavrinek and Trine, will fit the material to the needs of the group as he is experienced in presenting the topic.

The class will include the following topics: Individual tax returns; exemptions, tax rates, and computations; gross income; recognition of loss or gain; capital gains and losses; deduction of expenses; estimated tax by individuals; and supplementary problems.

The course is designed to explain basic principles and laws concerning the income tax, to gain familiarity with the main income tax returns used, and to know the usual procedure in preparing individual income tax returns.

City Receives Partial Sales Tax Receipts

City of Upland is in receipt of $43,316.19 in city sales taxes, forwarded to the city by the county from the December collections according to Mrs. Hazel Cassell, city clerk and finance officer.

As the general funds of municipalities are usually depleted at the first of each year, awaiting receipts from various income sources, the county of San Bernardino now makes a payment to each city yearly in January, with a larger payment following later the same month.

To date, Upland has received approximately only $64,000 of the $295,000 sales tax income anticipated for the 1958-59 fiscal year. With the fiscal year beyond the halfway mark, the payment of city sales tax receipts due later this month should be a considerable amount, Mrs. Cassell reports.

MRS. HEWITT TO SURGERY

Mrs. Don Hewitt, Mt. Baldy, wife of the owner of Don's Electric, entered Good Samaritan Hospital, Los Angeles, this week for surgery, to be performed at a later date. She is presently under observation while various tests are being made.

Upland Lions, of which Mr. Hewitt is a member, have asked for members to donate blood to the blood bank, as it may be necessary for Mrs. Hewitt to have some transfusions, and at the present, the supply donated by Lions Club members is depleted.

New Books For You . . .

At The Upland Public Library

BY HAZEL A. PULLING, City Librarian

If you loved Alberta Hannum's SPIN A SILVER DOLLAR with its exquisite paintings by the Navajo boy, Beatien Yazz, you will want to see, read, and own her latest, PAINT THE WIND with its even more lovely (if possible) illustrations. This one tells the story of Beatien Yazz's (in Navajo, Little No-Shirt) move into adult life among his own people upon his return from his stint with the Marines. It shows how he succeeded in reconciling his new-found alien life with his old primitive one, to find happiness with his own people and a girl of the Navajos. This is a true story, one you will enjoy.

For you we have Ceran's THE MARCH OF ARCHAEOLOGY with its vivid interpretation of life in far-distant days. This is a literary scholar's interpretation of the findings of scientists. It is a picture of the ancient world, complete with pictures, which excavations of recent years have revealed. It covers the Mediterranean world, Babylonia, and Mexico.

Among the novels is Wheeler's SMALL WORLD, a fast-moving story of those fast-moving modern nomands, the foreign correspondents. How two of them followed the wars, the revolutions, of recent years, to find at the end—themselves—makes a good story of today's world.

Two books about communism will be of interest to serious readers. The Overstreet's WHAT WE MUST KNOW ABOUT COMMUNISM, fts beginnings, its growth, and its present status, provides us with data for dealing with the effects of Communism on the world today. The other book is Lin Yutang's THE SECRET NAME. It is a more philosophical interpretation of what he calls "The dread antagonist," as Lin relates the history, the theory, of communism to his oriental way of thinking and to its inevitable consequences.

E. E. Cumming's poetry may be as clear as crystal to some of you but for others of us the new critique by Charles Norman, THE MAGIC MAKER, is a welcome sight. We think you'll like it, too.

And then there's HOW TO LIVE WITH A NEUROTIC which may help some of those who have to live with some of us. And, to startle us out of our complacency and our egocentered lives is C. Wright Mills, THE CAUSES of WORLD WAR THREE. The title alone is curiosity-rousing, but at the end are two sections you will read carefully —"What, then ought we to do?" and "The Role of the Intellectuals." Interesting and provoking of thought.

You'll want to make a reserve for Stuart Chase's SOME THINGS WORTH KNOWING which is his analysis of what the intelligent layman should know in order to deal with present and future problems. It ranges from science to the welfare state and on to art and many other things.

WEDEMEYER REPORTS is in. And you'll want to read Lengyel's FOUR DAYS IN JULY and for the literateur there's Eric Heller's THE IRONIC GERMAN, a study of Thomas Mann. Of interest to biologically inclined scientists is Pierce and David's MAN'S WORLD OF SOUND, the new physics and psychology of speech and hearing. Technical, but of interest to those who may be like the eleven-year old who wanted to know the other day exactly how the brain does its job. This is a step in that direction.

And there are many new and significant novels. Come in and browse. THIS IS YOUR LIBRARY.

WHEN WILL THE MARKETS REOPEN?

We're fighting a common enemy, an arrogant union manager whose unreasonable and excessive wage demands would inevitably increase our operating expenses and your food costs.

The store owners have always believed in paying fair and reasonable wages to their employees, already the highest paid in America averaging more than $100 a week and earning more than registered nurses, many school teachers, aircraft workers, stenographers.

Now the union demands an immediate pay increase of 40 cents an hour for this year and a raise of at least $1,600 for each and every one of 36,000 clerks over a five year period.

We're fighting these demands to protect your food dollar.

The easy thing to do would be to sign on the dotted line, and pass the cost on to you, the housewife.

The hard thing to do is to resist our common enemy at great economic sacrifice until the union manager who shut off your food supplies is willing to discuss settlement on fair, just and reasonable terms.

When will this be, Mr. De Silva?

Methodist Youth Fellowship Sponsors Family Night

Under the sponsorship of Methodist Youth Fellowship, family night will be held this evening at 6:15 p.m. in Methodist Church Fellowship hall.

Food, fun and fellowship for the entire family has been planned, with lots of variety. Group singing, entertainment by "The (Fallen) Stars From Mars," a white elephant sale by the college group plus a surprise are on the lighter side of the evening's program.

"A Late Report on Russia" by the Rev. Vickery Daughtery, pastor of Covina Methodist Church, who made a tour of Russia during the past summer, will contribute to the more serious side. He will present some interesting observations, together with colored slides which he took while on the tour.

Those attending are asked to bring a main dish and a salad or dessert and their own table service.

Hospitalized

Patients recently dismissed from Ontario Community Hospital include: Mrs. Helen Fagan Day, 1523 N. Laurel Ave., medical care; Mrs. Opal Blanton, 1401 W. 16th St., medical care; Mrs. Patricia Moore, 8623 Ramona, Cucamonga, surgery; Daren DeLozier, 266 N. Campus Ave., medical care; A. M. Hawkins, 415 W. 13th St., surgery; Mrs. Katherine Burkett, 7340 Lyons, Cucamonga, medical care.

To renew white window shades, remove the shades and hang them against a flat surface. Then apply a thin coat of flat white paint, and when it is dry, turn and paint the other side and the shades will look like new.

BPWC Learns Hospitals Are Nation's 4th Largest Business; Dr. Aita Is Speaker

January meeting of Upland Business and Professional Women's Club was presented by the Health and Safety and Public Affairs committees, with Mrs. A. S. Hastings, chairman, presenting Dr. A. A. Aita, administrator of San Antonio Community Hospital, as principal speaker.

Dr. Aita stated that, excluding government hospitals, the hospital business is the fourth largest business in this country, with 61,000 people admitted to hospitals every day, requiring 1,400,000 people as hospital employes and 70% of operating expenses going for salaries. A large part of this amount is spent locally, so a hospital is a good business for a community, according to the speaker.

Because of great advancement in treatment, patients now average four days in the hospital compared to 15 days average 28 years ago. Dr. Aita also predicted the discovery of a new "wonder drug" to combat the present staph resistant organisms.

At the request of the chairman, the speaker listed free services offered by San Antonio Community Hospital as The Tumor Board, Rheumatic Heart Clinic, Sick Baby Fund, Sick Bed Fund and Mark White Cancer Fund.

Miss Florence Andrews, president, announced that the next BPWC board meeting would be held in her home Jan. 22.

Guests introduced were Mrs. Ruth Persch, Health and Safety chairman, San Orco District, BPW, and Miss Charlotte Brinker, president of Chino BPWC.

Fathersingers? Present Baldy View PTA Program

"Come and See The BVD'S" was the theme for the regular meeting of Baldy View PTA on Tuesday evening in the school. We hasten to explain that these initials mean Baldy View Dads.

Following a short business session, Baldy View Dads took over and presented the evening's entertainment, doing a takeoff on the Mothersingers, directed by Suzanna Cappariello.

Twelve "dads" known for this one night as "Fathersingers" under the direction of Wilmer (Snider) Scrapparelli entertained members with such well-known favorites as "Ta Ra Ra Boom De Ay," "Whiffenpoof Song," "I've Been Working On The Railroad," "Tom Dooley," "You Are My Sunshine" and "Mary Ann." Needless to say, the "fathersingers" were well received.

During the business session, a five member nominating committee was appointed to prepare a new slate of officers.

Cub Scouts, Pack 10, in uniform, led members in the salute to the flag.

Mrs. Boris Cherbak, president, asked for members to present names, so that a choice could be made in the selection of a member to receive an honorary lifetime PTA membership. This will be presented on Founder's Day, Feb. 3, when the meeting will be held at Upland Elementary School. This change in location is made in order to accommodate the crowd which usually attends this annual meeting.

Mrs. A. W. Stremmel was in charge of the program, honoring fathers of the organization, on this memorable evening.

Alta Loma PTA Is Reciprocity Host

Alta Loma PTA served as host to parents and teachers from Cucamonga Central School on Thursday afternoon at 2:30.

It has become traditional for the two organizations to exchange one meeting each year, similar to reciprocity day as practiced by women's clubs. This year, the Alta Loma organization extended the invitation for the visit to Alta Loma school, 7085 Amethyst Ave., to Central School.

Mrs. Frances Hemenway, who teaches nutrition to nurses in training at Chaffey College, was guest speaker.

Mr. and Mrs. I. J. Linkey, 458 N. First Ave. have returned from a motor trip north, where they were guests of their son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Linkey and children, Linda and Mark.

Good drivers compensate for early darkness by reducing their speed, especially in neighborhood play areas.

Ruth Ann Circle Regular Meeting

Ruth Ann Circle of First Methodist Church held its January meeting in the home of Mrs. Alan Bescoby, 806 N. Euclid Ave., on Thursday evening, with the Mmes. Carl Hess and Clyde Danner as assisting hostesses.

Mrs. William Joseph, president, conducted the business meeting.

Mrs. Maud Linsley presented the program for the evening, giving a review of the book "Concerns of a Continent" by James W. Hoffman.

During the social hour, refreshments were served from a tea table which was spread with a lace cloth and had as a centerpiece, a bouquet of pink camellias, roses and vase, flanked by pink tapers in silver candle holders.

Guests introduced included Mmes. J. R. Thrasher and Mabel Tracy. Members present not previously mentioned were Mmes. Merrill Moore, Kenneth Robbins, Andrew Pollick, Everett Johnson, Charles Adams, Ray Short, Lloyd Tiberg, Robert Erickson, Louis Carey, Clarence Calhoun, Maynard Hancock, Edwin Behm, Donald George, Mel Hodell and Raymond Smith.

To make buttonholes in material which frays out easily, try marking with chalk the place where you wish to put the buttonholes, also the size. Have the chalk line machine hemstitched, cut as for a picot finish and then work over the picoted edges by hand, with buttonhole stitch.

Audubon, The Naturalist, Subject For Shakespeare Club Members

Shakespeare Club enjoyed another of its "journeyings" at its meeting Friday with Mrs. W. R. Mason, 559 N. Euclid Ave., as hostess.

Mrs. Arthur Bridge, president, opened the meeting, and then presented Mrs. Mason, program chairman. She introduced Mrs. Willard Stover, who gave a comprehensive paper, "Progress of a Naturalist - John James Audubon."

Mrs. Stover gave an interesting and humorous account of the naturalist, from the time he was sent to America from France to manage his father's estate. His ill luck and lack of business sense were stressed together with his seeming desertion of his family, when he went into the wilderness of the Mississippi Valley to sketch and paint wild life.

After nearly starving and being scorned by the gentry of which he considered himself a member, he suddenly became the rage of New Orleans and was sought after as a wit, fencing master, drawing teacher and tutor of French.

The speaker enlivened her paper with flashes of humor, mentioning Audubon's search for the "rarest bird of all," a subscriber to his reproductions. He later showed himself a capable business man in handling details of a publishing and circulation business.

Following the program, the hostess served refreshments from a charmingly decorated tea table.

Ted Vath, assisted by C.E. Hogancamp, Jesse DeFrese and Harry Merritt, conducted the auction. A special report was made by Arthur Allen, on the progressive programs to help the blind by other Lions clubs.

Johnson were hostesses for the afternoon and during the social hour, served refreshments from a delicately appointed tea table, featuring an arrangement of pink and purple iris and white marguerites and a manzanita branch, the floral composition the work of Mrs. Wilson.

College Hghts. Block Given R-1 Zoning

A block of agricultural land largely improved with residences can now be completely developed as residential with the City Council having approved R-1 zoning for the A-2 area, as requested by N. R. Jamieson and other property owners.

The property involved is located in College Heights, an area in southwest Upland, with Ninth St. as the south boundary, Huntington Dr. as the north boundary, and with Sierra Dr. and Benson Ave. as the west and east boundaries.

Mr. Jamieson told the Council Jan. 6 that the east third of the block was developed 100 per cent with residences, and with three homes on the other two-thirds of the area. He said the three latter parcels were long, narrow lots, formerly used for poultry farming but now impractical for development unless a plan utilizing the entire area is followed.

Property owners speaking in favor of the rezoning included Harry Belcher and George Evans. No opposition was heard.

Square Dancing For Beginners

Beginners' class in square dancing, sponsored by the Silver Spurs Square Dance Club met Monday evening in Ontario Woman's Club house at eight o'clock. The second open meeting will be held Jan. 19 and another to follow on the 26th, after which enrollment will be closed, according to Herb J. Porter, 256 Orchard Lane.

The class will meet every Monday evening at 8 o'clock in the club house, with Al White as instructor and caller.

Local Women At Special Heart Assn. Meeting

At a recent special luncheon meeting of the San Bernardino County Heart Assn. held in Arrowhead Springs Hotel, Mrs. Gertrude Glider, 7515 Camino Norte, Red Hill, is listed as one of the special guests. Also attending was Mrs. H. Logan Locke, 1465 N. Euclid Ave.

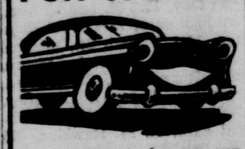

Dr. Mitchel D. Covel, vice president of the California Heart Assn., was guest speaker at the meeting. He is a specialist in internal medicine, and spoke on the objectives of the Heart Assn.

In his talk, he highlighted the three-point program of the Assn. covering research, education, both lay and professional, and community service. He stressed that the one reason for the existence of the Heart Assn. was to eliminate heart disease and the problems of heart diseases resulting from the affliction.

Azusa Commands 56-33 Non-League Victory Here

Visiting Azusa High School had a little more of everything and host Upland High didn't have much of anything as the Aztecs toppled the Highlanders, 56-33, Jan. 6 in a non-league clash before a sparse group of Upland supporters.

John Grace was again high man with 16 tallies. Tom Solters, John McClure and Lino Robledo all hit four points to be runnersup. Mike Guy hooped 17 for the winners. Azusa was tough on the backboards and used a quick fast break in spelling Upland. A tight zone defense also kept the Highlanders from hitting much from the floor.

Six Teams Open Basketball League Play At Jr. High

Recreation basketball is under way in Upland, with six teams having entered Youth Basketball League play Saturday on the Upland Jr. High School hardwood. More than 50 boys were on hand to add excitement and considerable noise to the three games played.

George Schilens, League director, encourages more boys to report for the recreational basketball periods each Saturday, 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. League play continues until Feb. 7, when a tournament will be held in Upland High School gymnasium.

Teams participating on the first day of League play are as follows:

Rosters of Teams

"T" Birds—Sal Guiliano, Richie Martinez, John Mishler, Steve Swerdfeger, Alford Fields, John Perry, Keith Miller, Ronnie Tenaglio;

Tigers — Frank Martinez, Bobby Ybarra, Ray Trujillo, Arthur Ramos, Ernest Meza, Bobby Lerouge, Bill Zabala and Billy Harmon;

Lions—Junior Cabunoc, Stan Surletta, Larry Davis, Dickie Marquis, Ray Brancacio, Deland Quinn, Allen Carey and Leslie Kalil;

Bears—Felix Quesada, Rudy Ramirez, Jerry King, Steve Lucas, Loren Miller, Jack Lear, Lindell Lummer and Evans Graham;

Hawks—David Ybarra, Dick Thoma, Mike Thoma, Donald Fernandez, Joe Kotwica, Wayne Harmon, Craig Beck and Joe Spillane;

Panthers — Louis Morales, Leo Martinez, John Foody, Brad Myers, Lonnie Jordan, Jeff Klekner, Gayle Files and Brian Campbell.

Hawks Over Tigers

In the season opener, the Hawks defeated the Tigers in one of the high scoring games of the day, 46-24. Joe Kotwica and Dick Thoma led the Hawks in points with 17 and 14, respectively, while Billy Harmon paced the Tigers with 10.

A much closer score saw the Panthers come from behind in the second half to defeat the T-Birds, 33-27. Louis Morales led all scorers with 20 counters. With Leo Martinez and Lonnie Jordan doing a good job on defense, Sal Guiliano, Richard Martinez and Steve Swerdfeger kept the T-Birds in the game with six, five and 10 points, respectively.

The Lions and Bears battled to an overtime game. Tied at 18 points at the end of the regulation time, Jack Lear—who led the Bears with eight points—made a lay-up in the overtime to bring victory to the Bears, 20-18. Felix Quesada also had eight for the Bears and Junior Cabunoc led the Lions with the same number of points. Stan Surletta and Deland Quinn were the Lions' other scorers.

Louie Black

Cager Of The Week

Scoring points is an important phase of basketball, but not necessarily the most vital factor. This point was again brought out at Upland High School when Louie Black was named "player of the week," despite the fact that he scored only 14 points in three games: Pomona, Azusa, and Claremont.

In the new system set up by Coach Jerry Kehr, the Highlanders are given points for such other factors of the court game as accuracy from the charity stripe and rebounds—in which Black excels.

Black joins center John McClure as the only player to be selected to the honor twice. John Grace has won the honor once this season.

About People

Mrs. Lee Archibald, 531 Highland Ct., has returned from an extended visit with her mother in Minnesota, and reports she likes Upland even better than she thought she did—after all the Minnesota weather she experienced.

Sutherby's 21 Spurs Jayvees To 45-32 Win

Jim Sutherby dropped in 21 points against Redlands on Jan. 8 to spur Upland High School's JV basketball team to a 45-32 victory over the visiting Terriers. Sutherby hit from all over the court and was effective on the backboards.

Paul Wood played an outstanding defensive game before fouling out midway into the fourth period. Bob Burton returned to his old scoring pitch as the soph garnered 10 points. Doug Wulf also played top floor game for the hosts. Upland scoring: F—Sutherby (21), F—Wood (4), C—Wucherpfnnig (5), G—Burton (10), and G—Wulf (3). Scoring subs: Doug Long, 2.

Final Seconds FG By Schubert Wins For Dees

Wayne Schubert hit a field goal with 15 seconds left to give Upland's dees a 33-32 victory over Azusa on Jan. 6. Ralph Santos was outstanding in the rebound department and also garnered six points. Schubert was high man with 16.

Since Claremont did not have a dee basketball team, Upland's dees promptly took on Claremont's cees immediately following the cee game and defeated the tired hosts, 30-15, with Wayne Schubert again being high man, this time with 10 points. Upland scoring: Santos F, 6; Valadez, F, 2; Schubert, C, 10; Ledesma, G, 7; Green, G, 3, and scoring sub Dave Medel, 2.

Fuents hit 11 points and Fink pumped in 12 markers to continue their two-man scoring punch. Coach Harley Lovitt's cees are now 2-0 in league play.

Red Cross Chapter Representatives At State Meeting

Thursday through Sunday, Upland chapter of American Red Cross was well represented at the California State Meeting held in Fresno, when speakers included General Alfred M. Gruenther, National Red Cross chairman, and Dr. Robert G. Gordon, USC dean of students.

Mrs. Eleanor W. Taylor, executive secretary; Mrs. Warren H. Wass, area volunteer field consultant; Mrs. R. A. Burleson, Home Service chairman, and Mrs. Rodney Faust, First Aid chairman, attended from Upland chapter.

First League Victory For Highlander Five

BY REED HANSEN

Although Claremont used their height to advantage in the first half of play, the smaller (and improved) Highlanders went on to their first League victory of the season with a 61-44 victory over the Wolfpack, Friday evening in Upland's gym.

A capacity crowd was on hand to witness the convincing win. Coach Jerry Kehr used his entire team in knocking off the defending champions of the Tri-County League. Louie Black, who was selected as "Player of the Week," grabbed 18 rebounds, a school record, in route to the triumph.

The playmaking of John Grace was also instrumental as the senior standout hit 21 points and continually broke the Wolfpack's backs with his steady driving lay-ins. Lino Robledo and John McClure hit 12 and 11 points, respectively, to balance the Highlanders' scoring. Gerry Thompson and Jon Boswell again turned in a fine floor game for the winners.

Bees Win Over Claremont Despite Fouls

Although Upland's bees committed 20 fouls in the first half, and four different players for the host five had four fouls at the end of the game, the Highlanders put on a terrific second half surge to edge out a determined Claremont bee team, 67-46, Friday evening in Upland's gym.

Coach Gus Rischer started his reserve string against the under-rated Wolfpack five and after the visitors raced off to a 12-1 lead he inserted the "first five" and they fought back to a 16-11 first quarter score.

With Bob Keller hitting his set shots from the playmaker's spot at the head of the key, the Highlanders raced past the Claremont crew at the half, 32-24.

But the aggressive Wolfpack came back out after the half with much enthusiasm and fought back to within four points, 38-34. Then Upland got plain mad and put on a powerful scoring effort to pull away for the victory. Keller wound up with 27 markers, his best effort of the season. Jim Weldon, Reed Hansen, and Everett Murphy were defensive standouts for the hosts.
